Clarendon Fine art warmly invites you to come and take

A STEP BEYOND The VISUAL

with a sensational new exhibition of 21st century British sculpture

Monday 16th to Sunday 22nd April

This wide-ranging show includes the powerful abstract statements of Michael Speller, the angelic bronze figures of Jennine Parker and some contrasting interpretations of the natural world from two of the most exciting voices in wildlife sculpture, Hamish Mackie and Michael Simpson

All life is here, to be experienced in three tactile and expressive dimensions, so do join us to view and acquire artworks which will endure through generations and be passed on as a legacy from some of the 21st century's most inspirational and influential artists.
